MEDIA ALERT

FREE STATE GOVERNMENT MAKES ASPIRING WRITER'S DREAM COME TRUE

June 12, 2014

The Free State Provincial Government, through the Department of the Premier, has honoured the commitment of empowering its citizens by ensuring that Tefo Daniel Litsoane, a 33-year old from Matwabeng, Senekal, realizes his lifelong dream of publishing his book. Aptly titled "Letlotlo Pelong Ya Motho", Tefo's Sesotho book will be officially launched on Friday, June 13, 2014 after immense support from the Free State Government.

A former prisoner, Tefo was once a down-and-out thief who was arrested for 6 months for possession of stolen property, in Senekal. In jail, he took the bold decision to change his life for the better and there and then, in confines of prison, began his first draft of a book which has now seen the light of day.

"Tefo's story is indeed evidence that through hard work, determination and the will to do good anyone can turn their life around", said Premier Ace Magashule.

Details of the book launch:

Venue: Literature Museum (Dingolweng)

Date: Friday, June 13, 2014

Time: 9:30am for 10am

ALL MEDIA IS INVITED.

Lunch will be served at 13:00pm after the launch.
